Part IV, Section D., line 2.

With the exception of ex-officio board members, the election or appointment of the members of the board of directors for any of the supported organizations are subject to the approval by the SLHS board of directors.

To ensure that SLHS is responsive to the needs of its supported hospital organization, SLHS has established a governing structure where its Board members are representative of the various geographical regions served by its supported organizations. Within the St. Luke's Health System, two regional governing boards, West Region, and East Region, have been established. Within each regional board, various community boards have been chartered to ensure that the local communities have involvement with the operations of their respective hospital organizations, as well as to make sure the overall health needs of their communities are addressed.

Please refer to our response to the question in Schedule A, Part IV, line 2a for a more detailed description of how the board structures established within the St. Luke's Health System enables the maintaining of a close and continuous working relationship its supported organizations.

Executive compensation is set by St. Luke's boards of directors and is reviewed annually. Compensation levels are based on an independent analysis of comparable pay packages offered at similar institutions across the country, with the goal of placing executives in the 50th percentile of those surveyed. These surveys are usually done every two years,with the most recent compensation survey completed during calendar year 2014.
